NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A rare investment opportunity: three renovated apartments in a historic Maison de Maître on the edge of lively Olonzac, the heart of the Minervois wine region. Within walking distance of the village center, the residences are part of a small and well-maintained co-ownership of seven units. Shared amenities – including a swimming pool (450 x 1000 cm, depth 60–200 cm) and summer barbecue area – add to the rental appeal for both holidaymakers and long-term tenants.

Olonzac offers a strong rental market, combining traditional village charm with modern conveniences. A bustling weekly market, quality restaurants, and the surrounding vineyards attract both French and international visitors. The location is also highly practical: only 30 minutes from Narbonne, 40 minutes from Carcassonne and its international airport, and one hour from the Mediterranean beaches.
