Bath: 3

Floor: 264 m<sup>2</sup>

Plot Size: 567 m<sup>2</sup>

IN BRIEF

An early 19th century 'Empire' fronted house with earlier 17th century interior features and a beautiful walled garden behind, ends with an independent I bedroom cottage that has its own walled garden beyond. The house is currently used as a holiday rental and has impressive stone floors and walls in the main ground floor rooms, as well as light airy bedrooms and bathrooms/washrooms. There is also a wing to one side of the walled garden that can be developed interiorly for further accommodation. The property is situated in a historic small market town with its fortress, therefore with easy access to country walks as well as shops, weekly market and numerous annual cultural events. The electricity and plumbng has mainly been renovated.
