NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In the centre of the village but with a clear space in front, the beautiful exposed stone façade immediately attracts attention. The garages and cellars occupy the entire ground floor. The first floor consists of this magnificent kitchen, which is as large, equipped and attractive as it is small, with a small living room with a fireplace opening onto the small courtyard. On this same level, you will also find a space with a beautiful bedroom, a large bathroom (bath and shower) and a separate toilet. Beautiful wooden stairs lead to the upper floor, which is full of softness between the sleeping area with the two bedrooms and the large living room/library/office under the roof, which is very bright thanks to its two skylights.

At the back of the garage is the standard oil-fired boiler from 2011, which also produces hot water. All the rooms are equipped with large radiators to ensure comfort throughout the house.

Villemagne l'Argentière is a small village renowned for its quality of life, calm and offering a primary school for families, a bar-tobacconist, delicious restaurants, with other amenities in Hérépian, a 2-minute drive away.
