IN BRIEF

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION... Houses of this size and scope in this sought-after spot don't come on the market very often so we are delighted to present this property! Just 1km from the River Oust/Nantes-Brest Canal and sitting high so there's no flood risk, you can stroll down to enjoy the beautiful scenery in around 15 minutes or take the car if you're loaded up with picnics or go by bike to join the canal path (quicker on the way down there!).

With such a lot of living space and the outdoor space too, there is so much you can do with this house. At around 1250€/m2 it also represents great value for money for this sector and can also generate an income if you wish! Hurry up and book your visit to see if this is the house for...

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The house consists of a ground floor with a large open plan living area, a large kitchen, another room that can be used as a separate dining room (or many other things, office, games room, studio etc.), two downstairs bedrooms and a bathroom with Italian shower. There is a separate toilet, also a utility room and a small workshop room with attic above for additional storage/use.

Upstairs from the large landing area 3 more bedrooms, 1 shower room, 1 separate toilet and a small attic for more storage. If you needed any more sleeping space, the landing currently has two beds too, plenty of overflow space!

The house is built of stone and is insulated by wooden cladding on the outside.

The garden is charming and has a wooden carport, another shed for the tools, and a south-facing terrace. You even have a small pond for a few fish!

The tarmac drive gives easy, low-maintenance access to the property.

The house is used successfully for some rentals during the summer so has a track record of generating income.
