This beautifully and tastefully renovated barn is just lovely with absolutely no work required at all, just move in and start enjoying your new home ! Tucked away under the stairs is the utility room which also houses the electric hot water heater and the plumbing for the washing machine. Upstairs there is a landing leading to 3 very good sized bedrooms, 2 of which have fitted wardrobes. There is also a small room which could very easily be converted into a dressing room, or kept as a storage room. There is also a shower room upstairs and a separate toilet with wash basin. Outside there is a terraced area to the front of the house and to the side of the house there is a flat lawned area with a small wooden garden shed. The property is very close to the lively village of Verteillac with its bakers, small supermarket that is actually not that small, plus bars, restaurants a bank, a post office, newsagents and weekly Saturday morning market and not forgetting the wonderful and renowned monthly brocante.
