IN BRIEF

A detached renovated four bed stone house with separate annex situated down a country lane, in just under 2.5 acres of land, stables and equestrian menage. The annex has the potential for conversion to a gite subject to planning consent. Located in a picturesque setting the house is close to the voie verte cycle and bridle paths that lead towards Domfront and Mont St Michel. Perfect for walkers, cycling and horse riders. An additional, significant advantage for equestrian enthusiasts is the 40 × 20-meter sand school and separate sables. Ferries and airports are easily accessible within two hours. The coast about an hour, Mont St Michel 52km.
