DESCRIPTION

A lovely two bedroom bungalow of 56m² habitable space with terrace and attached garden on a plot totalling 387m².

Located on an established and secure holiday village that is open all year round and within walking distance of amenities. The park's association maintains the public areas, and the swimming pool with free use of sunbeds and parasols. Other features offered by the park are tennis, crazy golf, fishing in the lake, table tennis, boules, and a small sand beach at one end of the adjacent leisure lake. There is also a restaurant and small supermarket.

The house enjoys lovely views over an adjacent large leisure lake and is also within walking distance of an international golf course with popular clubhouse/bar-restaurant.

NOTES

A side entrance opens onto an entrance hallway (6.5m²) with fitted cupboards. It leads to all the rooms and then opens onto an open plan living space (26.5m²) that comprises salon, dining room and fully fitted kitchen and enjoys views over the small front garden and lake beyond. Additionally, there are two bedrooms (11.5m² & 8m²), a shower room (3m²) and separate lavatory.

Outside, there is a tiled terrace (20m²) and small garden at the front and a larger, more private garden at the rear. There is also private parking for up to two cars.

The house has double glazing throughout, electric radiators and is connected to mains drainage. It is in good overall condition.
