NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Tucked away in the peaceful and picturesque village of Sengouagnet, this beautifully renovated, south-facing stone property is brimming with charm, character, and opportunity.

Whether you're dreaming of a tranquil family retreat, a lifestyle change, or a business venture in the heart of the Pyrenees, this property offers a rare blend of authenticity, comfort, and flexibility.

Lovingly restored using eco-conscious materials, the property includes a 2-bedroom main house and a fully self-contained 1-bedroom gîte/apartment—perfect for extended family, guests, or generating income through holiday or long-term rental.

Inside, traditional features have been thoughtfully preserved to retain the soul of the home. You'll find original wooden floors, exposed ceiling beams, and a feature fireplace that bring timeless warmth and rustic elegance.

Wood-framed windows and doors, many with their original shutters, open up to views of rolling hills and the surrounding countryside, creating a serene and inviting atmosphere throughout.

Let's take a tour of the main house:
