DESCRIPTION

Beautifully Renovated Village House with Character and Modern Comfort – Mareuil en Périgord

Nestled in the heart of the charming and vibrant village of Mareuil en Périgord, this elegantly renovated stone house offers approximately 110 m² of comfortable living space, seamlessly blending historic charm with modern convenience. Positioned directly on the village's picturesque market square, this home places you at the centre of a welcoming community, just a short walk from everything you need for daily life.

On the ground floor, the property opens into a bright and spacious living area with exposed stone walls, original wooden beams, and two large glass doors that bring in abundant natural light and offer direct views onto the lively square. The layout includes a kitchen, a separate toilet, and a private elevator providing access to both levels. To the rear, you'll find a peaceful enclosed garden, perfect for outdoor dining or relaxation, with direct access from inside.

Upstairs, the house offers two comfortable bedrooms, each with en suite shower room and WC, plus a pleasant summer room, perfect as a reading corner, guest room or workshop. An attic with a floor area of 50m² could be converted into an additional room with the necessary permissions from the relevant authorities.

The elevator connects the upper floor for added comfort and accessibility. A modern exterior staircase adds a contemporary architectural touch and provides an alternative entry to the upper level.
