IN BRIEF

Freshly reintroduced to the market after a short pause, this beautifully renovated stone townhouse sits on an elevated street just a short walk from cafés, restaurants, and shops in Montignac-Lascaux.

Blending period character with modern comfort, it features exposed stone walls, wooden beams, and a welcoming open-plan living area with fireplace. Two comfortable bedrooms and a sleek shower room make it ideal as a full-time home, stylish pied-à-terre, or investment property.

Fibre internet, mains drainage, and easy parking nearby ensure low-maintenance living in one of the Dordogne's most desirable — and flood-safe — towns, offering charm, practicality, and peace of mind in equal measure.
