NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled just 20 minutes from the enchanting medieval town of Sarlat, in the coveted heart of the Périgord Noir, lies a magnificent estate embraced by an exceptional and utterly tranquil setting, a true sanctuary untouched by the outside world.

Your arrival at the property is via a secluded lane, gently unfolding to reveal a place steeped in charm and whispering with history. Prepare to be captivated by an incredible 360° panorama that sweeps across the estate's verdant land and the embracing embrace of ancient woods.

Echoes of the past resonate here, a time when this address was a celebrated haven for discerning palates. Although the esteemed gastronomic business is now a cherished memory, its legacy lives on in the impeccably maintained infrastructure.

Discover a selection of elegant function rooms, a professional-grade kitchen poised for revival, and a light-filled veranda that invites lingering moments.

The grand main stone building seamlessly blends its former purpose with comfortable living. The ground floor still holds the ambiance of the former restaurant, while the upper level offers spacious and inviting accommodation.

Beneath it all, a substantial basement unfolds, revealing a traditional cellar for aging fine wines, a practical laundry room, a dedicated linen room, and convenient cloakrooms – all providing considerable storage solutions.

Furthermore, a versatile workshop presents the exciting potential for conversion into a substantial triple garage.

Adding to the estate's allure are numerous characterful stone outbuildings. Imagine the aroma of freshly baked bread emanating from the room housing a magnificent bread oven,...
