DESCRIPTION

Accessed via solar-powered electric gates, the property enjoys privacy and generous grounds while combining modern efficiency with character and warmth. The installation of 16 solar panels contributes to energy efficiency and provides a return from electricity generation, complementing the underfloor heating and heat pump system for comfortable year-round living.

THE HOUSE

Entering through the charming arched wooden front door, a bright and welcoming hallway sets the tone for the spacious accommodation throughout. Double doors lead directly into the main lounge, while an archway opens to a versatile games room.

The generous lounge (41.38m²) features large sliding patio doors with electric shutters opening onto the terrace, allowing natural light to flood the space and framing calming views across the lake. A log burner adds warmth and atmosphere during cooler months.

From the lounge, a hallway leads to an office or gym (7.09m²), a substantial utility room (18.24m²) housing laundry facilities, hot water tank, and energy systems, along with a separate WC. In the opposite direction, the games room/dining room (18.67m²) offers flexible family space and staircase access to the first floor.

An archway connects to the current dining room (13.56m²), which opens onto the terrace, while a further arch leads to the spacious kitchen (21.55m²). Featuring fitted cabinetry, a central island, RangeMaster cooker, additional log burner, and integrated appliances, the kitchen provides an inviting hub for everyday living and entertaining, with direct access to the terrace and covered bar area.
