NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Discreetly nestled at the end of a tree-lined driveway, this exceptional property offers complete privacy and tranquility.

Surrounded by lush, landscaped gardens that invite exploration, every corner of the grounds has been thoughtfully designed to charm and captivate. Discover a productive vegetable garden with a glasshouse, a shaded seating area perfect for quiet reflection, and a stunning walled garden with a central fountain that opens to uninterrupted views of the surrounding countryside. Expansive, manicured lawns and a gorgeously romantic pagoda to further elevate the setting.

Entry from the lawn leads into the main hallway, offering a choice: turn left into the intimate dining room or music room, or right into the spacious kitchen and through to the large elegant lounge. Every room reflects Victorian sophistication, exuding quality and charm with carefully curated antique furnishings that capture the era's grace and luxury being constructed in 1869.

The first floor comprises three inviting bedrooms and a beautifully appointed bathroom featuring a large bathtub, double shower, and dual washbasins — a sanctuary of indulgence and style.

Above, a 20 m² attic awaits your vision: ready to be transformed into a bespoke space or simply insulated to enhance energy efficiency, with potential to achieve a B,C rating.

The property benefits from oil-fired central heating and an exceptional supply of crystal-clear well water sourced from Le Rocher, the same spring that serves the entire village. Mains water easily connected.
