IN BRIEF

Set in a vibrant village atmosphere, the property is within walking distance of a local boulangerie, and surrounded by the rich flavours of the region—a goats' cheese farm, a sheep's cheese producer, and renowned local winemakers all call Couddes home. The Loire Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, draws visitors year-round with its rolling vineyards, royal castles, and timeless charm.

The pretty town of Contres with all amenities and a commercial zone, is just 7km away. The historic Royal City of Blois, with access to the A10 motorway, is 30km from the village and the city of Tours with TGV and airport serviced by Ryanair is 62km away.
