DESCRIPTION

A serene escape, yet close to amenities, this stunning 50 000m² lake nestled on a generous 10 hectares of land, (25 acres), is perfect for quiet fishing, or family gatherings and leisurely days with friends. It is an old, registered lake but has all the necessary regulatory requirements and authorized for tourism fishing.

This tranquil spot offers an ideal setting for relaxation or the potential to launch a small fishing business. With a maximum depth of 2.5 meters, this picturesque lake invites you to unwind and enjoy nature's beauty in a peaceful, non-constructible setting.

The lake is available for exclusive and non-exclusive hire with currently just two well positioned swims across each side of the lake, however anglers have access to 3/4 of the lakeside, or many further swims could bring in a further, larger revenue stream. The lake was replenished with carp over the last few years, and now 25+ kilo carp can be expected, along with some natural fresh water fish. The lake is stream fed.

The lake has access via a road giving easy access to parking areas and there is currently WC facilities with a dry toilette.

Whilst there are currently no provisions for habitation on site, nor water or electricity, the location is within walking distance to shops and by car to the main arterial route giving access to the A20 and A71 going the north or South of France.
