IN BRIEF

Nestled in complete privacy with no close neighbours, this charming stone house offers a breathtaking view that truly sets it apart. Tastefully extended in the 1980s to enhance space and comfort, the home blends traditional character with modern living. Designed for ease, most of the accommodation is on the ground floor, except for a stunning main bedroom suite in the pigeonnier, complete with its own dressing room and bathroom. Set within fully fenced and gated grounds, the property boasts beautifully landscaped gardens filled with mature trees, colourful flowers, and a variety of shrubs. A lovely swimming pool adds to the appeal, perfect for relaxing or entertaining.

Situated just 5 km from the vibrant village of Montcuq with its popular market, shops, and restaurants, this is an ideal countryside retreat offering comfort, charm, and spectacular views.
