DESCRIPTION

Elegant wrought iron gates welcome you to this beautifully restored property, set around a charming courtyard. The lovingly renovated barn retains many original features, blending seamlessly with high-quality materials. Inside, you'll find a stylish dining area (36.5m²), a well-appointed kitchen (25.4m²), and a bedroom (12m²) with shower room. A spacious and bright living room (28.8m²) along with another shower room completes the ground floor. Upstairs, a second living (31.8m²) area opens onto a balcony with stunning views of the picturesque garden and neighbouring lake. The master bedroom (11.4m²) boasts an en-suite bathroom, while a further single bedroom (5.5m²) offers additional space. This property benefits from gas central heating, pellet burners in both lounges, double glazing, and mains drainage. The charming old bread oven (18m²) is ripe for conversion into a quaint gîte, complete with a mezzanine bedroom area. Additional features include a practical workshop/garage (15.8m²) and a polytunnel. The garden wraps around the house, and a covered terrace provides the perfect spot for alfresco dining and relaxation.
