IN BRIEF

Nestled in the vibrant historic heart of Montcuq-en-Quercy-Blanc, this beautifully renovated stone house offers a rare blend of character and modern comfort. The bright, airy living spaces open onto one of the most central yet private gardens in the village—ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The main house spans three levels with 5 generous bedrooms and 2 stylish bathrooms. At the front, a 17 m² commercial space offers great potential for a boutique, office, or gallery. Two independent apartments add flexibility, perfect for rentals or guests. A rare find in the village centre, the property also features a double garage with direct access. This is not only a charming family home with lovely outdoor space, but also a smart investment with income potential—all just steps from Montcuq's lively market, shops, and cafés.
