IN BRIEF

This authentic stone house is situated in a quiet, highly desirable location in the historic centre of picturesque Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. Featuring approximately 60 m² of living space, with exposed timber beams, traditional tiled floors, majestic stone fireplace with wood burner, a welcoming living room, kitchen with dining area, and a renovated bathroom on the ground floor. Upstairs offers a spacious, air-conditioned bedroom. Ideal as a holiday home, rental investment, or a charming pied-à-terre in this sought-after village.

(An exceptional opportunity exists if you are seeking more space: the adjoining property is currently for sale with our agency. If acquired together, the two houses could potentially be combined to create a larger single residence — especially rare in Saint-Rémy's historic centre — offering additional living areas, more bedrooms, and even access to a private roof terrace with panoramic views.)

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in a peaceful location in the heart of the historic centre of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, this delightful 2-storey stone house exudes Provençal charm and authenticity.

With approximately 60 m² of habitable space, the property features beautiful exposed timber beams, traditional tiled floors, a wood-burning stove set in a traditional stone fireplace, and all the character you'd expect from an 18th-century village home.

On the ground floor, you'll find a welcoming living room with fireplace, a kitchen with dining area, and a renovated bathroom equipped with shower, toilet, and basin.

Upstairs, a spacious bedroom with air conditioning offers a comfortable retreat, filled with light and character.

A rare chance to own an historic home in one of Provence's most sought-after villages—perfect as a holiday retreat, rental investment, or charming pied-à-terre.

(An exceptional opportunity also exists if you are seeking more space: the adjoining property is currently for sale with our agency. If acquired together, the two houses could potentially be combined to create a larger single residence — especially rare in Saint-Rémy's historic centre — offering additional living areas, more bedrooms, and even access to a private roof terrace with panoramic views.)
