DESCRIPTION

Dating back to the 1700s, this former Basque-Country "bergerie" was recently restored and converted into a stylish cottage with living space of 185m², plus two loft-style rooms, which can be used as sleeping areas or office space.

Accessible via a quiet country lane, the cottage is set in delightful grounds of 1,642m². At the front of the property, there is a small stone barn, an outdoor parking area and a south-west-facing terrace; to the side of a cottage is a second terrace with a summer kitchen/barbecue area with a built-in barbecue.

The front door of the cottage opens into a small entrance hall, which adjoins a large sitting room with a fireplace. From the sitting room, an archway opens into a light and airy kitchen/dining room, which has a wood-burning stove and French doors out to the second terrace with summer kitchen and barbecue area.

Next to the kitchen, there is an arrière-kitchen/utility room with an adjoining walk-in pantry, along with a separate WC and a bedroom with an en suite shower room and WC, which would be ideal for accommodating B&B guests.

The first floor of the cottage comprises a bedroom with an en suite shower room, a dormitory-style bedroom ideal for children, two further bedrooms, a family bathroom and a separate WC.

The second floor, which has sloping ceilings, is currently used as two loft-style sleeping areas, but would be perfect for an office, a playroom, a games room, a gym...

Outside, the the small stone barn where...
