Charming Stone House with Garden in Saint-Lambert-sur-Dive (Normandy)

This beautifully renovated 136 m² stone house is set on a peaceful 1,408 m² plot in the village of Saint-Lambert-sur-Dive, ideally located just 4 km from Trun, a small town with schools, shops, a market, and a supermarket, and 12 km from Argentan.

The house, full of character, features a recently rendered limestone façade and is surrounded by a well-maintained, fully enclosed garden with trees and flowers. It is not directly on the road and offers two gated entrances with a small front garden, ensuring peace and privacy.

On the ground floor, the entrance opens into a bright 27 m² living room with a newly renovated fireplace and a wood-burning stove. There is a fitted kitchen of 11 m², a 13 m² utility room equipped with a sink, electric panel, and hot water heater, a shower room of 4 m², and a separate toilet located near a second entrance. The spacious 23 m² dining room includes a staircase leading to the upper floor.

Upstairs, there are two comfortable bedrooms measuring 20 m² and 16 m². One of the bedrooms is equipped with its own shower and toilet. A third room of 7 m² can be used as a walk-in closet or home office.

The property includes several outbuildings, including a 17 m² garage, an 11 m² workshop with direct access from the rear lane and the utility room, and a garden shed. The garden is attractively landscaped, fully fenced,...
