DESCRIPTION

Situated in the pretty Berrichon village of Saulzais-le-Poitiers, this 1938 Farmhouse occupies a large 1245m² level plot with beautiful ornamental and fruit trees, large lawns and well.

The house itself is modest at only 40m² comprising an entrance room set as the lounge diner, with separate fully fitted kitchen to the side, large family bedroom and shower room complete with toilet.

Whilst modest, the house has huge potential within the attached building which also houses 2 cellars (25m²), a large covered carport/hanger (25m²) with mezzanine area above and above the house itself are two loft areas of almost 50m² suitable for conversion. As a result, this pretty double glazed country home could become a large family home in a wonderful village setting.

There are two further sheds in the grounds along with working well.

The village offers a number of facilities including bar/tabac, boulangerie, hairdresser and small village shop.

The property has been well maintained and the gardens well tended so it is sure to appeal to those in search of a practical 2nd home in or indeed as a more permanent residence in the country.
