NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the charming village of Montignac-Lascaux, this stunning character home invites you to move in with no renovation needed.

Located just steps from shops, schools, local services, and the world-famous Lascaux caves, the house enjoys a prime location combining peace, convenience, and accessibility. In just 20 minutes, you can reach the magnificent medieval town of Sarlat-la-Canéda.

From the moment you step inside, you'll be captivated by the authenticity and quality renovation of the property. The ground floor reveals a bright and spacious 50 m² living area combining a lounge, dining space, and open kitchen in a warm, welcoming atmosphere. The materials and generous volumes create a modern yet cozy feeling. A practical pantry and a separate toilet complete this level.

Upstairs, the landing leads to three beautiful bedrooms ranging from 8 to 11 m², all with built-in storage, including one with a large adjoining walk-in closet. A well-appointed bathroom with a bathtub, walk-in shower, and toilet adds to the comfort of this thoughtfully designed night area.

The spacious basement is an added bonus, perfect as a workshop, game room, storage area, or even an additional living space depending on your needs.

Technically and structurally, the home is fully equipped for optimal comfort: electric underfloor heating on the ground floor, a pellet stove for soft, even warmth, auxiliary heating in the bedrooms, double-glazed windows, a recently replaced water heater, roof and framework redone in 2017, insulated attic and walls, and connection to mains drainage.

Outside, the 487 m² plot is...
