IN BRIEF

Located on the Plateau de Millevaches, Bugeat is a rural town and boasts a full range of shops, a bank, craftsmen and medical services. It also benefits from the facilities of the Espace 1000 Sources departmental sports centre, with its football, rugby and basketball pitches, two large sports halls, a host of modern facilities and a hotel.

Nature lovers and sports enthusiasts will appreciate the many hiking trails, sports circuits and golf course. Families will love the picnic tables on the banks of the Bugeat lake and the mini tree-climbing course. As for its old stone buildings (14th-century church with its bell tower and Gallo-Roman remains), they will delight history buffs.

The commune of Bugeat benefits from a train station travelling to Limoges and beyond.
