DESCRIPTION

This outstanding estate offers a rare opportunity to acquire a fully renovated and beautifully maintained collection of three character properties, set within almost 4 hectares of private, wooded grounds. Currently configured for hospitality and wellness use, the property is perfectly suited for gîtes, chambres d'hôtes, retreats, seminars or as an exceptional multi-family residence.

The setting is idyllic, with generous outdoor spaces designed for relaxation and enjoyment. A large saltwater swimming pool (12m x 6m) enjoys panoramic countryside views, complemented by terraces, a shaded pergola, and a charming pétanque court. The landscaped grounds include a productive permaculture vegetable garden, a glass greenhouse, a pond, two wells, and an impressive variety of mature fruit trees.

A private woodland path leads directly to the beautiful Lac de la Valette (230 hectares), just a 15-minute walk away, offering swimming, nature walks and outdoor activities in a preserved natural environment.

The Gîte

Constructed in traditional stone with a slate roof, this spacious and light-filled property features an impressive 144m² open-plan living and kitchen area, with large double-glazed windows opening onto a delightful terrace in a peaceful, bucolic setting. Heating is provided by a wood-burning stove, supported by a heat pump and electric radiators.

Upstairs, the accommodation is designed to host guests comfortably, with six bedrooms in total, each with its own bathroom. Four bedrooms are accessed from the main staircase, while two additional en-suite bedrooms benefit from independent access, offering flexibility for guest use or private letting.
