NOTES

DESCRIPTION

You first walk in to the large kitchen diner, with ample space for daily life and entertaining. The wood burning stove is an attractive feature and sits in the original fireplace. The solid chestnut stairs lead from the kitchen to the 2 large bedrooms, on the first floor.

To the left off the kitchen we find the beautiful living room with a marble, open fireplace and original wooden parquet floor. There is a games room off the living room which could be a 3rd bedroom and the bathroom is next door.

We have a door from the lounge, opening out on to a balcony, giving a stunning landscape view.

When leaving the kitchen you are met with a large terrace and BBQ patio area which leads through a floral & stone archway to the lawn and flowered beds.

There is an attractive barn opposite with its own, substantial garden. The barn roof is in good order, with guttering. The floor is concrete & there are 2 points of entry.

On the same plot we also have further outbuildings and a hanger, which can be used for covered parking. There is easy scope within the house itself to add a fourth bedroom with ensuite, on the ground floor. This can remain separate as a Gite, which has its own entrance door, or as part of the family home. The current owners utilise this space as a laundry room.

This lovely house has the feel and all the benefits...
