DESCRIPTION

Beautifully Renovated 4-Bedroom Home with Barn, Terraces & Garden – Dordogne

Tucked away in a peaceful hamlet in the heart of the Dordogne, surrounded by vineyards and gently rolling countryside, this charming stone house offers approximately 170m² of living space over two floors. Set on a generous plot of around 4,665m², with terraces, a large barn, garage, and vegetable garden, the property perfectly combines comfort, character, and the relaxed French lifestyle.

On the ground floor, the entrance hall leads into a spacious and light-filled open-plan living, kitchen, and dining area of about 45m², complete with a woodburner and French doors opening onto the main terrace, which measures approximately 42m². There is a separate utility room of 16m², and an additional flexible space currently used as a dining room, second lounge, or hobby room, also measuring 16m². The ground floor also offers a shower room with WC (approx. 3m²), and two large double bedrooms. One bedroom is approximately 15m² with a front-facing window and a lovely logburner. The master suite is a generous 17m² and includes a 4m² dressing area, with views overlooking the rear garden. A spacious family bathroom of 8m², along with two handy storerooms (each approx. 2.5m²), completes the ground floor layout.

Upstairs, a 10m² landing leads to two further double bedrooms, measuring approximately 13m² and 15m², both with wooden floors and windows to the front of the house. A central room sits between them and offers a versatile space that could serve as an...
