NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Large house completely restored in southern Burgundy, bed and breakfast since 2014 in the historic town of Semur en Brionnais, Cluniac site in the center of the circuit of great Romanesque churches, classified among "The Most Beautiful Villages of France"

In this tourist setting, the guest house is open all year round, its activity could be continued by buyers who would like to do so.

This beautiful house located in a very quiet environment, embellished with a wooded plot entirely enclosed by walls, with two wells for watering, can also be the comfort of its equipment, be suitable for a large family: town gas, mains drainage, fibre optics.

The house has two levels:

On the ground floor:

The entrance hall (16m²), where there is a beautiful oak staircase with its wrought iron railing, leads to a living room (20m²) on its left with two windows, with oak parquet flooring, an antique fireplace (decorative) and woodwork around the wall.

On the right, there is a bedroom (22m²) with a shower room with window (5m²) shower, toilet, sink. The spacious room has two windows, one of which opens onto the walled inner garden.

Opposite, a small hallway where there is a toilet on the right with sink and washing machine connections. On the left is the access door to the cellar, where the condensing boiler running on town gas is located. Opposite the access to the living/dining room (29m²) featuring a beamed ceiling and decorative cement...
