IN BRIEF

Situated between the towns of Felletin and Crocq in a peaceful hamlet, this beautifully presented home is full of character. Inside, the property has been lovingly maintained and tastefully updated, featuring a luxury bathroom with underfloor heating—the perfect blend of comfort and charm.

The spacious grounds surround the house on all sides, ideal for relaxing and entertaining, The garden boasts a shaded picnic area, a vegetable garden - and even a bread oven!

An added bonus to this property is the second stone cottage - said to be the oldest house in the hamlet - which could be renovated to create a gite and thus create an income.

It really is the perfect rural retreat!
