NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A beautiful stone built period property with modern comfort, originally constructed in 1750. Rich in character and full of original charm, this beautifully restored two-bedroom property offers spacious living in a truly unique setting.

The home features a generously sized open plan living area perfect for relaxing or entertaining, with exposed stonework and period details that highlight its historic roots. There are two well-proportioned comfortable bedrooms, a shower room, utility room, 2 separate WCs, plenty of storage space and a cave. The thoughtfully designed layout creates a sense of warmth and cosiness throughout.

Outside, the property boasts a beautiful, mature garden — ideal for enjoying sunny days or quiet evenings — along with private off-street parking. Despite its tranquil setting, the home is conveniently located close to local amenities, offering the perfect balance of rural charm and town convenience.

Whether you're looking for a character-filled home or a second home on the banks of the Loire river with easy access to daily essentials, this exceptional property is ideal.

Montsoreau has consistently been voted one of the most beautiful and sought after villages in France. With its bars and restaurants, shops and hotels, it has everything you need.

Just an hour from Tours, with it's high speed TGV service to Paris and airport. Nantes, Bordeaux, and Poitiers airports are also close by.
