NOTES

DESCRIPTION

OVERVIEW:

In one of the most prestigious and picturesque settings on the French Riviera, this rare seafront villa in Cap de Nice offers a living experience unlike any other. With its distinctive architecture reminiscent of a small lighthouse, direct private access to the sea, and breathtaking panoramic views over Cap Ferrat and the Mediterranean, it is an invitation to embrace the Côte d'Azur lifestyle in its purest form.

Tastefully renovated with attention to detail, the villa spans three levels and enjoys a south-east exposure, bathing its interiors in natural light from sunrise to late afternoon. The moment you enter, the horizon stretches out before you in a postcard-perfect panorama, while the sound of the waves and the privileged waterfront location create a haven of peace — just minutes from local shops, restaurants, and transport links.

Whether enjoying breakfast in the luminous veranda, relaxing on your spectacular sea-facing terraces, or unwinding in the living room with the water almost at your feet, this property offers the rare sensation of living in your very own lighthouse.

LAYOUT:

With around 65 m² of interior living space, the villa has been cleverly designed to maximise light, privacy, and the ever-present sea views on every level.
