IN BRIEF

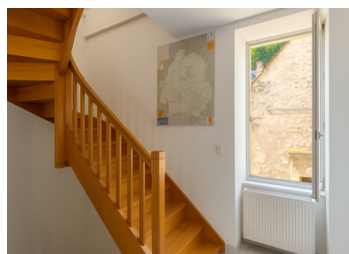

A rare opportunity to acquire a versatile three-level stone property in the heart of Montignac-Lascaux. Offering approx. 111.6 m² of flexible internal space and dual street-facing entrances, the structure may suit conversion into two separate residential or mixed-use units (subject to planning). The ground floor features a welcoming salon with open fireplace and exposed stone wall, plus a WC and staircase. The 43 m² second floor is open-plan and filled with natural light, with water points in place for a kitchenette. The 27 m² top floor has plumbing prepared for a bathroom and WC. The entire property is double-glazed, internally insulated (except for feature walls), and serviced by mains gas for hot water and heating. With a C energy rating, this property is ideal for investors, small business owners, or those seeking a home in Montignac's vibrant historic centre.

DESCRIPTION

This character-filled stone property is ideally situated in the heart of Montignac-Lascaux, just steps from shops, markets, the Vézère river, and world-famous Lascaux heritage sites. Offering exceptional flexibility across three levels, it represents a compelling opportunity for investors or those seeking a central town residence or workspace.

Ground Floor (~41.6 m²):

Accessed via two independent entrances, one on each side of the property—ideal for those exploring subdivision (subject to planning permission). Enter into a spacious salon with a working open fireplace and an original exposed stone wall, offering instant character and warmth. A connecting hallway includes a WC and leads to the internal staircase.

First Floor (~43 m²):

An open-plan space with abundant natural light thanks to multiple windows. Currently used as an office area, this level features a movable kitchenette unit, water access points, and ample room for configuring a studio, open-plan living, or a professional workspace.

Second Floor (~27 m²):

This top-level area is already plumbed for a bathroom and WC, streamlining the process of installing an en-suite or full bathroom. With appropriate permissions, it could become a private bedroom suite, studio apartment, or secondary office.

Technical & Efficiency Notes:

Internal insulation throughout (except for preserved stone feature walls)

Double-glazed windows on all levels

Mains gas for central heating and hot water

Energy rating: C – efficient and ready for use

Solid construction with high ceilings and natural charm
