NOTES

DESCRIPTION

In front of the house is a small parking area where from the front door you enter the entryway area leading to a spacious dining room and kitchen on the left and to a large luminous salon with a fire place and views of the garden and the river. On the ground floor are located also a WC and utility area with washer and drier. An authentic wooden staircase leads to the first floor where are located the two bedrooms, one of them connected to a large adjoining room, a potential third bedroom currently used as a dressing room. Each of the two luminous bathrooms has a WC, and is heated with modern electrical heaters. The garden can be accessed from the entryway and from the kitchen, where a door opens to a large comfortable covered patio area with garden furniture, and to the garden. The highlight of the property is the beautifully designed riverside garden offering long views across the river. It consists of green lawn, mature trees, bushes and flowers arranged in clusters to form different areas designed to provide privacy and relaxation. There is a garden shed and a well. The outbuilding provides storage space that could be further converted into a living space. The house is on the mains. It has a high-speed internet - fiber. It is heated with electrical radiators and has a recently installed new modern electrical system. The ground floor is fully renovated to a high...
