DESCRIPTION

Discover this splendid riverfront property where traditional French country comfort meets contemporary loft-style elegant living.

The imaginatively recreated character stone residence offers 260 m² spacious layout on the main level combined with a New York style loft-mezzanine living space 80 m². On the lower level are: cellar/garage/outbuilding space under the house (basement) that has been structurally reinforced and well maintained for storage or business purposes; a 205 m² barn and the 190 m² barn/stable suitable for 2-6 horses. There is a garage on the main level, integrated into the house, with direct access to the house interior, a covered secure off-road parking for 4 large vehicles, and a driveway allowing easy access from the road to the interior of the property including almost 2.5 hectares private land. The pool area near the house is ready for installation of a large above the ground pool with wooden deck. The landscaped grounds around the house are decorated with flower beds, bushes and trees and there are raised bed gardens with potential for expansion. Close to the airports of Poitiers and Limoges, with good road and rail links, for Europe and further afield. Virtual viewing by appointment.

1. Comfortable versatile and spacious home interior
From the front door of the house, you enter a welcoming hallway leading to the spacious library/multipurpose room, ideal as an additional living space, a playroom, or a media lounge. On the left you enter the first spacious bedroom. A corridor provides access to...
