NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Located in the heart of the scenic Parc naturel régional Périgord-Limousin, this standalone country house offers a green setting with great renovation potential. Set on a 1,365 m² plot, the garden is adorned with mature trees that provide welcome shade on warm summer days.

The house offers approx. 78.6 m² of habitable space, including:

On the ground floor:

- A kitchen (11.5 m²)
- A living room (12.9 m²)
- A dining room (17.6 m²)
- A rear room of 9.6m2, not heated that could be converted into an additional bedroom
- Separate WC (1.3 m^2) and shower room (1.5 m^2) On the top floor
- Two bedrooms (11.5 m² and 13.2 m²)

There is also a workshop/shed attached to the house (18.5 m^2) and a separate outbuilding (23.5 m^2) offering additional storage or development possibilities.

This property is ideal for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a countryside home with character and potential. Whether for a permanent residence or a peaceful holiday getaway, this house could become your cozy retreat after some renovation work.

Location

The property is situated in the commune of Dournazac, known for its beautiful natural landscapes, peaceful rural setting, and proximity to the popular Feuillardiers forest area—perfect for walking and outdoor activities.

The town of Châlus, just 7 km away, offers all essential amenities: a secondary school, modern supermarket, pharmacy, bank, vet, restaurants, cafés, DIY stores, and a weekly market featuring local produce. The historic town centre is home to the
