DESCRIPTION

Double doors lead into the kitchen diner with granite stone fireplace and wood burning stove taking the central spot. Space for a family size dining table and a sofa too making the ideal snug area. The spacious lounge also has double doors opening out and looking out onto the terrace and garden with country views. There is a downstairs shower room with WC and a storage area ideal for coats and boots. Upstairs you will find two large bedrooms. One has fitted storage but both have beautiful exposed oak A frames and granite walls. Velux windows look out onto the surrounding fields. Beautiful garden that is mostly to lawn but filled in places by mature trees including cherry apple and pear. The sun filled terrace is a secluded spot to sit and relax with. The property comes with private parking for 2 vehicles along with a garage that is also ideal for storage and a handy wood shed.

Minutes from amenities and near the popular villages of Passais la Conception and St Simeon. This area is full of cycle routes and walks which along with kayaking, drinking the local cider and visiting medieval towns like Domfront a fantastic location as a primary residence or second home.
