IN BRIEF

Lovely old stone property comprising a spacious renovated barn, attached second small house to finish renovating and additional outbuildings with renovation potential, all set on a plot of approximately 1500m².

The renovated barn has over 200m² habitable space and offers a large open plan ground floor living space with corner kitchen, dining room and two salons in addition to a large bathroom and three first floor bedrooms.

Renovation of the second house has started and when completed would make a lovely maison d'amis or could be rented out. There are additional outbuildings that also offer renovation potential.

The garden is at the back of the house and offers a private space that is not overlooked. An adjoining private semi-enclosed terrace is ideal for outdoor

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Stone property comprising a renovated barn, second house to finish renovating, additional old houses with renovation potential and attached garden of approximately 1500m².

The renovated barn, renovated in 2008, has 215m² habitable space that comprises:

On the ground floor:

An open plan living space (150m²) with underfloor heating that includes a fully fitted corner kitchen, two salons (one with a large wood burner), a spacious bathroom (14m²) with dual showers and separate lavatory. Large french windows lead to a side terrace and the rear garden.

A wooden staircase leads to the first floor and three bedrooms (10.5m², 13.5m² & 13.5m²) set on one side of the barn. The bedrooms have skylights and the master has French windows leading to a balcony 15m² with lovely views.

All windows are double glazed and the bedrooms have electric radiators. The septic tank for the main house is fully functional with a conformity check soon to be completed.

Attached to the house is a boiler room (22.5m²) and workshop space (31m²).

Also attached to the main house is the second smaller house that could offer 57.5m² habitable space over two levels once renovation work has been completed.

Two separate old stone outbuildings (38.5m² & 72.6m² respectively) offer even more renovation potential.

The attached garden, mainly lawn with a few trees and a vegetable patch, is at the back of the property with direct access from both the main and second house. It is a large enough to enjoy and...
