DESCRIPTION

This bright modern apartment, renovated in 2024, is in excellent condition and comes with air conditioning throughout. This charming property consists of an entrance leading into the main living space with a large airy dual aspect corner living room with a balcony to each side. There is a separate modern fully equipped fitted kitchen, a short corridor/lobby with cupboard space leading to the two bedrooms and a 'his n hers' bathroom with shower/bath and also a separate guest WC.

There are two generously sized double bedrooms, each with fitted wardrobes, and each has its own balcony looking out to the peaceful gardens with pine trees. Large sliding patio doors throughout allow you to fully benefit from the sunny climate.

The apartment is traversal opening East/West and all rooms open out onto lovely views across the estate and the château grounds. The double-glazed patio doors are fitted with electric security shutters, and there is reversible air conditioning throughout. The property is sold with a secure underground place for parking and a large storage cellar.

Across the manicured lawns you will find a large shared swimming pool plus children's pool and to the other side of the Château grounds there are two well maintained tennis courts exclusively for residents use.
