NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This rare lot includes several cellars totaling over 35 m² in the basement, accessible via the communal areas. These raw spaces are perfect for storing equipment, archives, or personal belongings.

Upstairs, the attics offer approximately 64 m² of floor space under the roof. These dry, high-volume areas are well-suited for storage or could be converted into a workshop, office, or additional room, subject to planning permission.

The entire lot is sold together. The building is ideally situated in the heart of Moûtiers, just steps from shops, the train station, and all amenities. A great opportunity for those in need of functional space in a central location.

Known as the gateway to the Three Valleys, the year round town of Moutiers is situated at the base of the valley ensuring easy access to world famous resorts such as Val Thorens, Méribel and Courchevel, to name just a handful. With a Eurostar and TGV station in the town, and the N90 running right past, access to the town couldn't be easier!
