DESCRIPTION

Set at the end of a long private driveway, this charming property offers complete privacy with mature woodland bordering the left side and several hectares of gently sloping land on the right, providing stunning views and peaceful surroundings. A spacious gravelled parking area leads to a large double garage and practical workshops, ideal for hobbyists or additional storage.

GROUND FLOOR

The ground floor features a large games room or potential additional bedroom of 20m². The hallway includes an understairs area that could serve as another bedroom or office space. Open-plan living at its finest awaits with a stunning living area flowing seamlessly into a comfortable salon/TV room. The large dining area (32m²) boasts superb views and a double-sided wood burner with a log alcove, creating a cozy atmosphere. This dining room opens onto one of the terraces—perfect for outdoor dining or entertaining. There is also a downstairs WC and buanderie (laundry room). The dining room flows into the beautiful kitchen, equipped with ample cooking and storage space, featuring lovely stone floor tiles and modern wooden and steel units. A door leads to a pantry. The kitchen opens onto a superb veranda with breathtaking views and further extends to the south-facing terrace. Also on this floor is a bedroom (17m²) with great views and plenty of fitted wardrobe space.
