DESCRIPTION

This authentic village house offers the charm of the old with the comfort of immediate use, while leaving room for modernisation.

On the ground floor, you are welcomed by an open-plan living area that serves as the heart of the home, complemented by a bathroom and a practical storage space in the entrance.

A few steps lower, a separate WC enhances functionality.

The first floor accommodates two bedrooms, perfectly liveable yet ready to be refreshed to your style.

Above, a 45 m² attic awaits conversion, providing an exciting opportunity to expand the living space into a master suite, additional bedrooms or a cosy retreat.

Below, the property hides a beautiful vaulted cellar, full of character and ideal for storage or to create a unique feature.

Outdoors, a generous 97 m² private parking area is a real asset, ensuring convenience in a village where such space is highly sought-after.

La Flachère is a traditional Savoyard hamlet nestled in an unspoilt natural environment, just a few minutes from renowned ski resorts such as Saint-Martin-de-Belleville and Les Menuires in the Three Valleys. Here, you will enjoy a peaceful lifestyle while staying close to all the services and pleasures the mountains have to offer. Both in summer and winter, the Belleville Valley is a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts, offering skiing, hiking, mountain biking, local gastronomy and the discovery of authentic alpine traditions. It's a place where life is good and where nature lovers as well as mountain enthusiasts will be...
