NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Charming House with Versatile Potential in Bergerac

Looking for space, character, and flexibility? This beautiful stone-built home, constructed in 1971, might just be the perfect match.

Located on the outskirts of Bergerac, within easy walking distance of shops, schools, the train station, and just minutes from the airport, this spacious property offers approximately 280 m² of living space across two levels, ideal for a large family, dual households, or a mixed residential/professional setup.

The home features:

- 5 generous bedrooms
- 3 welcoming living/dining areas
- 2 semi-equipped kitchens (great for potential dual occupancy)
- 1 full bathroom and 1 shower room

Outside, the 1900 m² garden is a rare gem: tree-lined, buildable, and pool-ready, offering endless possibilities for relaxation, landscaping, or even additional construction.

Whether you're looking to create two independent living spaces, develop a small business (tea room, wellness center, paramedical office, etc.), or invest in a highly rentable property, this home offers outstanding rental potential and room to grow.

Why you'll love it:

- Authentic stone architecture and large living spaces
- Flexible layout for personal or commercial use
- Buildable and pool-friendly garden
- Prime location close to all amenities
- Strong investment opportunity in a sought-after area
