DESCRIPTION

Located in the peaceful countryside of Seignanx, on the heights of the charming village of Biaudos between the Landes and the Basque Country, this beautifully preserved 19th-century farmhouse offers the perfect blend of rustic charm, comfort, and opportunity. Just 25 minutes from Biarritz and the Atlantic beaches, it enjoys a dominant position with sweeping views over the surrounding landscape.

Set on more than one hectare of partially wooded land, the property features two independent houses with the possibility of combining or reconfiguring them to suit your needs—whether for a tourism business, intergenerational living, professional activity, or a large family home.

The main house, fully renovated, offers approximately 120 m² of living space.

On the ground floor:

A spacious and welcoming 45 m² open-plan living room with a wood-burning stove and fitted kitchen

A bright bedroom opening onto a south-facing terrace

A modern Italian-style shower room and a separate toilet

Upstairs, a large landing with a skylight leads to:

A beautiful 20 m² master bedroom with a fully fitted walk-in closet

Two additional bedrooms (10 m² and 13 m²) with built-in storage

A generous bathroom with twin sinks

A separate WC

Adjoining the house is a 45 m² former garage, ideal for conversion into a guest studio, workshop, or
