DESCRIPTION

Step through the front door into a bright, fully equipped kitchen and dining area — the heart of this character-filled townhouse. Tucked discreetly behind is a handy storage cupboard housing the electric hot water tank.

To one side, a cosy living room awaits, complete with a wood-burning stove for winter evenings, and direct access to a spacious, sun-drenched patio — perfect for entertaining or relaxing in the shade of the mature lemon tree. This outdoor space also has its own private entrance from the street, ideal for welcoming guests.

Upstairs, you'll find a comfortable double bedroom and a modern shower room with toilet, as well as a flexible second room — perfect as a home office or extra bedroom — which opens onto a charming balcony. A second staircase leads to the top floor, where another double bedroom, an additional shower room with toilet, and a cosy single bedroom provide even more space for family or visitors.

This well-appointed townhouse blends comfort, practicality, and charm, making it a perfect full-time residence or holiday getaway — all just a short stroll from the town centre.
