

Sorry offer accepted. Charming 16th Century Manor House with private wood and outbuilding.

EXCLUSIVE

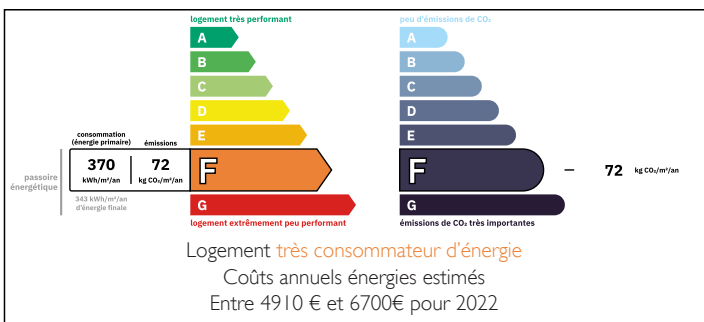

INFORMATION

Town:	Plumieux
Department:	Côtes-d'Armor
Bed:	2
Bath:	2
Floor:	142 m2
Plot Size:	13020 m2

IN BRIEF

Hidden away at the end of a tree lined driveway is this beautifully preserved 16th-century manoir, a rare opportunity to enjoy authentic heritage in the heart of the French countryside. Full of character, the property combines historic elegance with the comfort of modern living. Spacious and luminous interiors flow gracefully into the garden, offering a haven of peace and privacy. The manoir provides generous bedrooms, welcoming reception rooms, and inviting outdoor areas for relaxation or entertaining. Situated in the heart of Central Brittany, near Plumieux, it offers an idyllic lifestyle, where history and nature meet in harmony. Whether as a permanent residence, a holiday retreat, or a prestigious guest home, this unique property embodies the art of refined country living in France. A place to slow down, reconnect with beauty, and experience the essence of French charm.

ENERGY - DPE

NB. Quoted prices relate to euro transactions. Fluctuations in exchange rates are not the responsibility of the agency or those representing it. The agency and its representatives are not authorised to make or give guarantees relating to the property. These particulars do not form part of any contract but are to be taken as a general representation of the property. Any areas, measurements or distances are approximate. Text, photographs and plans, where applicable, are for guidance only. Leggett and its representatives have not tested services, equipment or facilities and cannot guarantee the same.

Particulars for off-plan purchases are intended as a guide only. Final finishes to the property may vary. Purchasers are advised to engage a solicitor to check the plans and specifications as laid out in their purchase contract with the developer.

DESCRIPTION

The property was owned by the Vallee family for many generations but the current owners have brought it up to modern standards. The stone building is surrounded by gardens.

You enter the property into the kitchen with the tiled floor, fitted units, wood burner and dining table (6.328 x 5.164m²). Through a stone arch with glass door you reach the lounge. It is a large room, double aspect with large, double glazed windows (6.070 x 7.559m²). The stairs lead up from the kitchen to the first floor. The guest bedroom is a huge room with wooden floors, exposed beams and a feature fireplace. (4.321 x 4.869m²). In the corner there is an ancient staircase with the original door leading to the attic. It would be possible, with permissions, to convert the attic into two further bedrooms.

Along the corridor is a family shower room with shower, WC and sink.

At the end of the corridor is the master bedroom. Another large room which also has exposed beams, a feature fireplace and a superb wood floor. The room is tastefully decorated with panelling, hiding a door to the en suite shower room which has a shower, WC, sink and heated towel rail.

It is said that in the 1900s the owner of the Manoir ordered that the stable block was to be built and unusually for the region should be in red brick. The current owners had considered converting the...

NOTES