IN BRIEF

Situated at the end of a long country track, this exceptional property is surrounded by wooded grounds, open fields, and two large ponds, offering peace and rustic charm in abundance. Full of character, it features a delightful pigeonier, generously proportioned rooms, and original details such as terracotta floors, exposed stone, and beams. The ground floor includes an entrance hall, spacious dining room with stone fireplace, farmhouse kitchen, sitting room, second salon, downstairs bedroom, and a cellar. On the first floor are four further bedrooms—one with ensuite—a family bathroom, and a large room with scope to create an additional master suite. A substantial barn together with several stone outbuildings provide excellent opportunities for expansion or conversion. Conveniently located between Duras (13 km) and Marmande (11 km), and just 7 km from the charming hilltop village of Monteton, this is...
