NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Antibes, one of the most enchanting towns on the Côte d'Azur, is famous for its timeless charm: cobbled streets, Provençal markets, golden beaches, and the sparkling Mediterranean at your doorstep.

Living here is about more than just a home, it's a lifestyle of sun-filled days, leisurely walks by the sea, and alfresco dining on your private terrace under the Riviera sky.

This rare renovated apartment is nestled in a prestigious residence, offering absolute tranquility while remaining within walking distance of the town center, shops, buses, trains, and the seafront.

Inside, the feeling is one of elegance and comfort: restored Carrara marble floors, a brand-new fitted kitchen, a contemporary bathroom with walk-in shower, and a spacious bedroom with built-in storage. Every detail has been thoughtfully designed for easy, refined living.

The 17 sqm terrace is a true highlight – southeast facing, with a calming green view and a glimpse of the sea. Here, you can enjoy breakfast bathed in sunlight, quiet afternoons reading, or long summer evenings dining outdoors with friends.

The residence enhances this lifestyle with manicured gardens, a dedicated caretaker, a private parking space, and a cellar. With collective heating and water included in the monthly charges, comfort and practicality are guaranteed.

Most importantly, no major works are planned, and the pool renovation has already been voted and paid for, giving you peace of mind.

This is more than just an apartment, it is an opportunity to own a piece of the Riviera dream: a serene, elegant...
