IN BRIEF

This beautifully restored townhouse offers spacious living in the heart of a charming Anjou town. With four lovely bedrooms, including one with adjoining bathroom, plus a self-contained guest annexe, it provides flexible accommodation. Restored with care and quality materials, the house retains its period charm while offering a calm, efficient home. The extended kitchen-dining area is designed for both cooking and entertaining, while outside a wood-lined swimming pool sits in a generous, secluded garden with mature fruit trees and well-planted borders, all fully enclosed. Every space inside has been thoughtfully finished, requiring no further work to enjoy immediately. Located in Champigné, a thriving town in northern Maine-et-Loire, amenities are on the doorstep, with easy access to Caen's ferry port, Le Mans to the east, and Angers to the south.
