NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Reached by a small lane, this delightful home is surrounded by beautifully kept gardens and welcomes you with a cosy, fully equipped kitchen complete with wood-burning stove; alongside is a spacious sitting room with an impressive granite fireplace, also with a stove, and French doors opening onto the terrace where you can enjoy the gardens, paddocks and far-reaching countryside views. Upstairs you'll find space for up to four bedrooms, two perfect as charming little offices or hobby rooms, while the top floor beneath the eaves offers a characterful bedroom and a handy attic space for storage.

Across the lane you'll find a range of versatile outbuildings, previously used for up to five stables/stalls all with water and electricity, offering plenty of space as a garage, workshops, or a host of other uses. A generous outdoor arena of around approximately 1,000m² with lighting is close to the stables, while the well-fenced paddocks surrounding the house and additional grazing land opposite provide wonderful space for horses or livestock. With bridleways right from the doorstep and its charming setting, this property is a real eye-catcher, perfectly suited to country living
