IN BRIEF

Located in the heart of the massif des Bauges national park between Annecy and Chambéry, the converted farmhouse is conveniently situated 2km from Le Chatelard and 2.5km from Lescheraines, with all the local amenities available within a few minutes. Saint Jorioz on lake Annecy is only 21km away.

The property is accessed via a gated entrance into a very private mature garden with a large detached 2 storey garage and in the lower garden there is a beautifully clean mountain stream with water rights. The house has 4 spacious bedrooms plus a large 55m2 dormitory which could easily be converted into another 3 bedrooms and another bathroom. There's plenty of accommodation for a large family or to run a gite operation with up to 25 weeks letting per year.

DESCRIPTION

From the kitchen, you can access the glorious vaulted wine cellar. Via another door in the office on the landing, you discover a 55m² games room and dormitory hidden away. Downstairs through another door you find a large utility room which leads to boiler room equipped with a state-of-the-art wood pellet boiler, which heats the house for roughly half the price of the estimated heating costs on the EPC report. A nice surprise, as is equally the newly installed super-fast fibre broadband ideal for working from home. Finally, there is a hidden staircase leading to a large room to develop.
